The team at Calderfields Golf & Country Club cares deeply about the quality of food and service we offer our guests. We have a vast experience of organizing funeral receptions and we are here to help you organize this important day with empathy and consideration.

No reception is too large or too small. We have a variety of different food or drink options to suit your needs.

All our food is freshly prepared by our award winning chefs, please ask us if you require a more extensive buffet or formal dining, nothing is too much trouble.
